8. FORCE MAJEURE

8.1. For the purposes of the Contract, ‘Force Majeure’ means any cause preventing either party from performing any or all of its obligations which arises from or is attributable to acts, events, omissions or accidents beyond the reasonable control of the party being prevented, without limitation, strikes, lockouts or other industrial disputes, failure of a utility service or transport network, act of God, war, riot, civil commotion, malicious damage, epidemics and pandemics, compliance with any law or governmental order, rule regulation or direction, accident, fire, flood, storm or default of the Supplier.

8.2. No party shall be entitled to bring a claim for a breach of obligations under the Contract by the other party or incur any liability to the other party for any loss or damages incurred by that party to the extent that Force Majeure prevents a party from carrying out their respective obligations and that the required notifications have been made in accordance with clause 8.3.

8.3. In the occurrence of Force Majeure, the affected party shall notify the other party as soon as practicable. The notification shall include details of the nature and extent of the Force Majeure and any action proposed to mitigate its effect.

8.4. As soon as practicable, following such notification, the parties shall consult with each other in good faith and use all reasonable endeavours to agree appropriate terms to mitigate the effects of the Force Majeure and facilitate the continued performance of the Contract.

8.5. If the Force Majeure prevents, hinders or delays performance of the Supplier’s obligations for a continuous period of fourteen (14) calendar days the Contract may be terminated in accordance with clause 7.

9. INSURANCE, LIABILITY AND INDEMNITY

9.1. Except in the event that indemnity arises from World Animal Protection’s negligence and subject to any laws relating to the limiting of liability, the Supplier agrees to indemnify and keep indemnified World Animal Protection against all and any loss, damages, claims, expenses, liability or costs (including reasonable legal costs on an indemnity basis) of any nature incurred or sustained by World Animal Protection arising out of or in connection with the performance (or non-performance/delay in performance) of the Services by the Supplier. This includes without limitation any claim that relates to the infringement of a third party’s intellectual property rights resulting from the supply of Services by the Supplier.

9.2. The Supplier shall maintain in force during the period of this Contract adequate and appropriate insurance cover with reputable insurers acceptable to World Animal Protection in respect of its potential liability under this Contract and shall promptly provide to World Animal Protection any evidence, documents or materials reasonably requested by World Animal Protection in relation to such insurance cover.

9.3. Nothing in this clause limits/excludes either party from liability for death or personal injury resulting from either party’s negligence, for which no limitation applies.

10. DISCRIMINATION

10.1. In performing their obligations under this Contract, each party shall use its reasonable endeavours to procure that its employees and representatives (where applicable) shall:

10.1.1. refrain from discriminating directly or indirectly against any person on the basis of age, disability, gender reassignment, marital or civil partner status, pregnancy or maternity, race, colour, nationality, ethnic or national origin, religion or belief, sex or sexual orientation;

10.1.2. comply with and act in a way which is compatible with relevant ‘Equality Law’ including but not limited to the European Convention on Human Rights, any employment rights and legislation as amended from time to time, and all applicable legislation and regulations relating to equality and non-discrimination, including the UK’s Equality Act 2010 as amended from time to time; and

10.1.3. comply with all applicable laws, regulations, codes and sanctions relating to anti-slavery and antihuman trafficking, including but not limited to the UK’s Modern Slavery Act.

11. NOTICES

11.1. Any notice to be served in respect of this Contract must be addressed to the following:

12. VARIATION

12.1. This Contract may only be varied in writing by mutual agreement of both parties. Such agreement can be made via email or letter (which can be submitted electronically or via hard copy).

12.2. The Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 shall not apply to this Contract and no person other than the Supplier and World Animal Protection shall have any rights under it.

13. NON-SOLICITATION

13.1. The Supplier agrees that they will not, either on their own account or in partnership or association with any person, firm, company or organisation otherwise, whether directly or indirectly and during or for a period of twelve months from the end of the term of the Contract, solicit or entice away or attempt to entice away, or contract directly with, any employee of World Animal Protection who has worked on the Services provided under the Contract.

14. GOVERNING LAW AND JURISDICTION

14.1. This Contract and any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with it or the Services shall be governed by and in accordance with the law of England and Wales. The parties irrevocably agree that the courts of England and Wales shall have exclusive jurisdiction to settle any dispute or claim that arises out of or in connection with this Contract or the Services.

15. APPENDIX A – DATA PROTECTION

15.1. The parties acknowledge that UK GDPR (as amended from time to time) shall apply at all times to this Contract in the event that any personal data ("Personal Data") is processed in performance of the Services and shall include a set of data protection particulars in each SoW as applicable.

15.2. If the Supplier is required to process, exchange, import or export any Personal Data in performance of the Services they shall, at all times, comply with the relevant data protection policies and procedures of World Animal Protection, UK GDPR and the provisions of this Contract.

15.3. The Supplier shall, in relation to any World Animal Protection Personal Data:

15.3.1. process that Personal Data only on the documented instructions of World Animal Protection as set out in this Contract, unless the Supplier is required by any data protection laws to otherwise process that Personal Data. Where the Supplier is relying on data protection laws as the basis for processing Processor Data, they shall promptly notify World Animal Protection of this before performing the processing to the extent such notification is permitted by law;

15.3.2. implement appropriate technical and organisational measures to protect against unauthorised or unlawful processing of Personal Data and against its accidental loss, damage or destruction, including (but not limited to) as appropriate:

- I. the pseudonymisation and encryption of Personal Data;
- II. the ability to ensure the ongoing confidentiality, integrity, availability and resilience of processing systems and services;
- III. the ability to restore the availability and access to Personal Data in a timely manner in the event of a physical or technical incident; and
- IV. a process for regularly testing, assessing and evaluating the effectiveness of technical and organisational measures for ensuring the security of the processing.

15.3.3. In assessing the appropriate level of security the Supplier shall take into account in particular of the risks that are presented by the processing, in particular from accidental or unlawful destruction, loss, alteration, unauthorised disclosure of, or access to the Personal Data transmitted, stored or otherwise processed.

15.3.4. ensure, and procure that anyone who has access to and/or process the Personal Data are obliged to keep the Personal Data confidential; and

15.3.5. promptly assist World Animal Protection in responding to any request from a data subject and in ensuring compliance with World Animal Protection’s obligations under UK GDPR with respect to security, breach notifications, impact assessments and consultations with the Commissioner, supervisory authorities or other regulators and, in particular, the Supplier shall promptly and within forty eight (48) hours notify World Animal Protection if it receives any complaint, notice or communication (whether from the Commissioner, any data subject, supervisory authority or other third party) which relates to processing of Personal Data;

15.3.6. notify World Animal Protection without undue delay and normally within twenty-four (24) hours after becoming aware of a personal data breach and on suspecting the same, the Supplier shall promptly
STANDARD TERMS AND CONDITIONS

15.3.7. At the written direction of World Animal Protection, delete or return all Personal Data on termination or expiry of the Contract and certify to World Animal Protection in writing it has done so, the obligation to “delete” data includes the obligation to delete data from backup systems as well as live systems; and 15.3.8. Maintain adequate records, and, on World Animal Protection’s request, make available such information as World Animal Protection may reasonably request, and allow for and submit its premises and operations to audits, including inspections to demonstrate its compliance with UK GDPR and the terms of this Agreement pertaining to Personal Data.

15.4. The Supplier shall not, without the prior written consent of World Animal Protection (and in any event subject to the Supplier providing World Animal Protection with reasonable evidence that such activity is being undertaken in full compliance with UK GDPR):

15.4.1. Appoint or replace (or change the terms of the appointment of) any other processor in relation to Personal Data or transfer any Personal Data to the same; or 15.4.2. Carry out, via itself or via any other processor, any processing of Personal Data, or transfer any Personal Data, outside of the UK, including processing Personal Data on equipment situated outside of the UK.

15.5. With regards to indemnity and liability:

15.5.1. The Supplier shall indemnify and keep World Animal Protection indemnified from and against any and all costs, damages and expenses of any kind arising from any claim or demand brought by any person, data subject, Commissioner or supervisory authority as a result of any breach or alleged breach by the Supplier of any data protection law or its obligations under liability for losses arising from breaches of clause 15.

15.6. World Animal Protection may process Personal Data relating to the Supplier for certain legitimate business purposes, which include legal, personnel, administrative and management purposes.

15.7. The Supplier must not extract or copy any information from World Animal Protection systems without prior written approval from the Data Protection Coordinator or the Director of Governance and Legal Services.
